

MJ has been a long time member of the American Gem Society, a nonprofit dedicated to setting and maintaining the highest possible standards of business ethics and professionalism in the jewelry industry. Less than 5% of jewelers are recognized by this prestigious association. We provide you with peace of mind, a priceless gift in the jewelry industry.

As an American Gem Society Jeweler and family of professionals, we take pride in sharing our commitment to you:

- Building authentic, life long relationships with those we serve
- Giving back to the local and global community
- Creating an engaging environment of mutual trust and appreciation for both staff and guests
- Continuing education in our industry and sharing it with you
- Providing the finest selection of responsibly sourced diamonds
- Providing generational jewelry from internationally renowned jewelry designers

Following the code of ethics as outlined by the AGS assures that we provide you with the following:

- Ethical business practices
- Development and maintenance of superior gemological skills and knowledge
- Consumer protection

For more information about the American Gem Society visit www.ags.org

ETHICAL AFFAIR

As a leader in our industry, we believe that all members of the diamond supply chain share the responsibility of giving back to the nations where diamonds are mined. Locally, our family-owned business embraces the spirit of serving our community. Through MJ's support of local and global charities, we help make it easy for you to shop with a conscience. MJ continues to change lives and we invite you to join our Ethical Affair.

EDUCATING • ENRICHING • EMPOWERING LEARN MORE AT WWW.AN.ETHICAL.AFFAIR.COM

IMAGINE LAS VEGAS

VOLUME THREE

IMAGINE LAS VEGAS

VOLUME THREE

Since 1939, MJ Christensen Diamonds are fully committed to principles of honesty, integrity, craftsmanship, excellence in guest service, and most importantly, relationship building. While we carry an unparalleled selection of exclusive designer brands and responsibly sourced diamonds, what drives us each day is a genuine love for our communities.

