The welfare of your loved ones, your business, your ideas, and all your assets are too important to leave to chance if something were to happen to you. The professionals at COOPER | COONS can help you put your affairs in order to ensure that your family and your assets are protected in the event of your death, incapacitation, or unforeseen litigation.

COOPER | COONS is a law firm dedicated to providing expert services in the areas of intellectual property (patents, trademarks, copyrights, cyber law), estate planning (trusts, wills, estate tax planning), probate, guardianship, asset protection, tax controversy, and business entity formation.

The professionals at COOPER | COONS include a registered patent attorney, a certified public accountant, and other tax professionals. They are uniquely qualified to provide a high-level of expertise in meeting all your estate planning, intellectual property, and business transactional needs. The attorneys at COOPER | COONS are recognized leaders in our legal field, bringing a wealth of experience, education and enthusiasm to our enterprise, which allows us to provide clients with a high level of service, at a reasonable fee.

Let COOPER | COONS work together with you and your professional advisors to establish a legally sound and tax efficient plan to protect you and your loved ones for years to come. ■
